A Few Facts and Figures From the History of Division 3, A. O. H.

Hibernians of the West End Have a Grand and Glorious Record.

WILL CELEBRATE ITS ANNIVERSARY

It is pleasant to all right-minded people to take an occasional retrospective view of their lives, to see what good they have accomplished and what mistakes they have made. So it is with societies. The members meet and celebrate this or that anniversary, and in doing so look back with pleasure upon the happy days of long ago or speak with regret and sorrow of those members who have passed away. It is such an occasion as this that Division 3 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will provide for its members on Monday, October 19, the nineteenth anniversary of its organization.

County President Patrick T. Sullivan, besides being one of the most earnest and enthusiastic members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the city, was a charter member of Division 3. Of course he knows the history of the division from its inception, and to him the Kentucky Irish American is indebted for interesting facts from its establishment to the present time.

Division 3 was organized on October 13, 1884, by John M. Hennessy, who was at that time County President of the order. However, the members have decided to celebrate the anniversary on their regular meeting night instead of on the actual date of organization. The late John J. Barrett also ably assisted Mr. Hennessy in its organization and predicted that night that this would be the banner division of the order in this city. The meeting was held in Reich's Hall, at Nineteenth and Portland avenue. Division 3 then, as now, was made up of members from the northwestern part of the city. Of the original charter members who met that night some are alive, while others have passed to their eternal reward. Numbered among the dead are John Sheehan, Edward Malone, George Taaf, John Thornton, Michael Moore, Michael Deeley and Thomas Kelly. Those who are alive are County President Patrick T. Sullivan, James Gill, Michael Sheehan, Martin Ford, State Treasurer George J. Butler, Michael Lerner and Thomas Kennedy.

The first officers of Division 3 were: President, Michael Sheehan; Vice President, George J. Butler; Recording Secretary, Martin J. Ford; Financial Secretary, John Sheehan; Treasurer, Edward Malone. Before the year was out Mr. Sheehan, owing to the press of other business, was compelled to resign, and Patrick Holley was elected to fill out the unexpired term as President. In 1885 Mr. Holley was re-elected President, with Michael Lerner as Vice President; James Coleman, Recording Secretary; Nicholas Sheridan, Financial Secretary, and Daniel F. Murphy, now City Assessor, Treasurer. In 1886 Patrick Holley was again chosen President, with George J. Butler Vice President. A year later James Coleman was elected President, but in 1888 Patrick Holley was once more chosen President. In 1890 Nicholas J. Sheridan succeeded to the Presidency. He resigned the following November and Patrick T. Sullivan, now County President, was chosen to fill out the unexpired term. He succeeded himself in 1891. Since then Patrick T. Sullivan, now a member of the police force; Joseph Taylor, Lawrence Mackey and John Cavanaugh have each served two terms as President of Division 3. Mr. Cavanaugh was serving his third term when he resigned last Monday night.

The members of Division 3 have always been noted for their activity in Hibernian affairs and have had representatives high in State and national councils since 1886, when James Coleman was elected State Secretary and served in that capacity without opposition for sixteen years. During that time he attended the national conventions of the order in Louisville, Omaha, Hartford, Detroit, Boston and Trenton. At each of these conventions Mr. Coleman played an active and prominent part. To him the entire order is indebted for the system of electing the division officers prior to the State officers and the State officers prior to the national officers, whereas in former times the national officers were elected prior to the State and division officers. Michael Sheehan served as State Treasurer in 1886 and George J. Butler is the present State Treasurer, while Patrick T. Sullivan is the first member of Division 3 to serve as County President. Patrick Holley also served as State Treasurer and as State President. From this it can be seen that Division 3 always had members who stood high in State and national affairs.

Mr. Coleman also deserves great credit for his work in securing the ritual now used in degree work by the order. In the national convention at Boston a few years ago he made a plea for a revision of the ritual and, at his suggestion, $250 was set aside for that purpose. The revision of the ritual followed soon after.

Among the old members of Division 3 who attained prominence in the practice of their profession or in city affairs were Ed T. Tierney, Dr. William B. Doherty and the late Alderman William Patterson. Mr. Patterson remained a member of the order until his death. Dr. Doherty is still an active member of the division. Mr. Tierney is now a member of the Board of Public Safety. He ceased to be a member of the Hibernians several years ago.

At present the numerical strength of the division is 110, but from 1886 to 1889 this division ranged from 108 to 157 members. It has now more than $1,000 in the treasury and is probably the strongest division in the city financially. Since the establishment of the order Division 3 has paid out more than $10,000 in sick and death benefits. During nineteen years only three men who were at any time officers of the division have died. They were Michael Deeley, Edward Malone and John Sheehan. Of these Mr. Deeley died while in office. Division 3 was called the mother of Divisions 5 and 6. Both of these divisions flourished for a time and then dropped out of existence. When each of these two divisions were established Division 3 lost twelve of its most active members. Among the members of the division who were lost to the order through death were the following excellent gentlemen: John Thornton, John A. Bree, John Stewart, Mike Reardon, L. M. O'Mara, Henry Lawler, John Burns, Michael Deeley and C. A. Burns. All of these died members of the order in good standing, true to the principles of friendship, unity and Christian charity.

For many years Division 3 met at Nineteenth and Portland, but during the past year its meetings have been held at Hibernian Hall on the first and third Mondays of each month. The anniversary celebration promises to be a pleasant one, where the members will delight in recounting the deeds of other days and renew their pledges to the principles of the order.

HAPPY HOURS

Spent by Trinity Council Entertaining Grand President Kelly.

Trinity Council met Monday night and gave a reception and smoker in honor of James B. Kelly, the new Grand President. In addition to the members of Trinity turning out in large numbers quite a sprinkling of members were present from St. John's and Mackin Councils. In opening the meeting President Tom Garvey congratulated the members of Trinity Council on its splendid progress and urged all to work to secure a membership of 300 before the new year. He then introduced Grand President Kelly.

Mr. Kelly said his aim would be to conduct the affairs of Kentucky jurisdiction of the Young Men's Institute zealously and urged all to give him their hearty support. By so doing they would make certain both the social and moral advancement of the whole order. He deplored the lack of charity that occasionally manifested itself among members. He pleaded with them to leave out personalities and to stand steadfast for the general membership and good of the order. Mr. Kelly said he would work for the interest of all councils and would endeavor to have the true Catholic spirit prevail at all times. His address was applauded to the echo.

Refreshments and cigars were served and then Grand Secretary George J. Lantz was introduced. He made one of his usual thoughtful addresses, which was well received. Clarence H. Zook, of Mackin Council, the well known insurance agent, who as Chairman of the Reception Committee helped to make the recent meeting of the Grand Council a success, congratulated Trinity Council and all the other grand officers on the selection of Mr. Kelly as Grand President.

Appropriate resolutions were adopted on the death of Mrs. Thomas Camfield. It was determined to allow the Ladies' Auxiliary the use of Trinity Council's library, and Eugene Conroy was recommended for Council Deputy. Frank Burke declined to make a speech, but in a few happy words invited all to come and enjoy the series of socials to be given by Mackin Council. Brief addresses were made by David O'Connell, Emmet Slatery, Andrew Kiefer, Ben Hund, Dr. Frank S. Clark, William M. Higgins and others. It was announced that Trinity Council would give entertainments on Sunday, November 22, and on Thanksgiving eve.

HIS FIRST MASS.

The church of the Immaculate Conception at Eighth and Grayson streets was not large enough to hold the immense congregation that gathered there last Sunday morning to assist at the first mass of the Rev. Father Theodore H. Reverman. Mrs. Louise Reverman, mother of the celebrant, and several other relatives and friends were given positions of honor in the church. Father Reverman was assisted by the Rev. Father Helling as deacon, the Rev. Father Rouhet as sub-deacon, and the Rev. Father Bohlsen as master of ceremonies. A choir of fifty sang Gounod's mass. The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Father Bernard Westerman, who reviewed Father Reverman's career from boyhood to the present time, and paid a fitting tribute to his scholarly attainments.

PREPARATIONS

For a Big Euchre Are Being Made by Federation Delegates.

Resolutions Adopted by National Body Were Indorsed and Commended.

Mass Is Being Celebrated Regularly at Industrial School of Reform.

RESULT OF FEDERATION MOVEMENT

The Jefferson County Catholic Federation held a well attended meeting at Hibernian Hall on Friday night of last week. Dr. Joseph W. Fowler presided. On roll call it developed that seventeen of the twenty-two societies affiliating with the County Federation were represented by one or more delegates. John J. Crotty submitted a report from the Entertainment Committee recommending that a euchre be given to secure funds to carry on the purpose of the organization. The idea was considered a good one and the following committee was appointed to arrange for the euchre: Dr. Ben Lammers, John J. Crotty, Lula Schwaniger, Dr. Frank S. Clark, Miss Mamie Kiley, Mrs. Monahan, Mrs. M. Hoban, Miss Fackler, Miss Mary Sheridan, John J. Barry, J. B. Kelly, John H. Hennessey, Patrick T. Sullivan, Thomas Feeley, Joseph P. McGinn, Louis Hamill, Dr. Alphonse S. Bizot and Miss Rena C. Weisenberger. The committee was given full power to arrange date and hall for the euchre. John J. Crotty announced that he would donate the first prize. William T. Meehan announced that he would donate the second prize.

The Louisville Council of the Knights of Columbus sent a communication announcing the withdrawal of its delegates from the federation. It was explained that the Knights of Columbus were not opposed to the federation movement, but were simply acting under the national charter, which forbids the Knights as a body affiliating with any other society. It is possible that this restriction may be removed when the National Council of the Knights of Columbus meets in this city next year. The communication was received and the delegates were allowed to withdraw.

Dr. Frank S. Clark and Patrick T. Sullivan made earnest talks in favor of the federation and urged perseverance. Daniel Sheehan also made a nice address commending the resolutions adopted by the National Federation. He said they were, as a whole, a criterion for any Catholic society. James B. Kelly, the new Grand President of the Young Men's Institute, was called upon and told how the Grand Council recently indorsed the resolutions of the National Federation.

The members pledged themselves to ask the bodies they represented to donate prizes for the euchre. It was announced that mass was being celebrated regularly every Sunday at the Industrial School of Reform. This has been brought about through the efforts of the Jefferson County Federation and with the aid of Judge Matt O'Doherty, a member of the Board of Directors of the Reform School.

When the County Federation adjourned the euchre committee met and organized by electing the following officers: Dr. Frank S. Clark, Chairman; John J. Barry, Secretary, and Patrick T. Sullivan, Treasurer. The sub-committee on hall is made up of Dr. Clark, John J. Barry and E. J. Aud. Committee on cards and punches—Dr. A. R. Bizot, Miss L. Schwaniger and Miss Mamie Kiley. Committee on Press—John J. Barry and James B. Kelly. Committee on Prizes—Dr. Ben Lammers, Mrs. Hoban and Miss Fackler.

The sub-committee appointed to arrange for a hall and date for the euchre met and decided to hold the euchre at Liederkranz Hall on Thursday, November 19. The full committee will meet at Trinity Hall on Wednesday evening, and each member is urged to be present.

SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Holden to Celebrate Their Anniversary.

Patrolman and Mrs. John J. Holden will celebrate their silver wedding on Wednesday, October 14. They were married at St. Peter's church on October 14, 1878. Now, twenty-five years later, they will renew their vows of fidelity at St. George's church. After the renewal of their vows the Rev. Father Weiss will celebrate mass for their intention. Following the ceremony at the church Mr. and Mrs. Holden will leave for Muncie, Ind., where they will spend a week as guests of Messrs. Thomas and William Holden, brothers of Mr. Holden.

Patrolman John J. Holden has been on the police force during the past thirteen years and has always performed his duties admirably and has the respect of his fellow-patrolmen and superior officers. His estimable wife before her marriage was Miss Catherine Dusch. Their married life has been a happy one and their friends will visit St. George's church on Wednesday to assist at the mass and wish the worthy couple many more years of married happiness.

ELOQUENT SERMON

On the Fifteenth Anniversary of a Church Dedication.

Only a very heavy down-pour of rain kept people from overcrowding the Church of St. Frances of Rome, Clifton, last Sunday night. The attendance at the late mass, however, was very large. Sunday night solemn vespers were sung, the Rev. Father Daniel O'Sullivan, of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Father Kalaher, of St. Cecilia's, and Rev. Father Walsh, of the Sacred Heart church.

The Rev. Dr. O. P. Ackerman, pastor of St. Philip Neri's church, preached the anniversary sermon. He told of the love Catholics should have for their parish churches and how they should make it a pleasure and consider it an honor to aid in beautifying the house of God. The sermon was an eloquent and impressive one. The choir of St. Frances of Rome was augmented by many of the leading soloists from other Catholic choirs and the music added much to the beauty and solemnity of the occasion. The altars were banked with palms and flowers, a tribute from the members of the congregation to the untiring energy of their beloved pastor, the Rev. Thomas W. White. This well beloved clergyman has made many improvements in his church during the past fifteen years. He is popular with all classes, who wish to be with him to celebrate his silver jubilee.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

A general meeting of representatives of all the branches of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will be held in Marker's hall, Seventeenth and Main streets, Wednesday night, October 14. A full attendance is desired, as matters of importance are to be discussed. Among other things are arrangements for the national convention to be held in this city next year. The matter of giving a euchre next month will also be determined.

GOOD EXAMPLE

For Other Societies to Be Set by Branch 25, C. K. of A., on October 28.

Will Approach Holy Communion on Their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

Brief Review of the History of an Admirable Body of Catholics.

THE GROWTH HAS BEEN STEADY

Branch 25 of the Catholic Knights of America will reach the twenty-fifth milestone of its career on Wednesday, October 28, but the members will celebrate this twenty-fifth anniversary on the Sunday preceding, October 25. Different people and different societies have different ways of celebrating their respective anniversaries. One may celebrate with a dinner to his friends and relatives. Another may hold a reception, where gifted orators hold forth and review the events in the life of the person in whose honor the reception is held, or if it be a society speak pleasantly of the living and kindly of the dead. Yet far simpler but infinitely more glorious than these will be the celebration of their anniversary by the members of Branch 25. They will approach the holy sacrament of the eucharist in a body. Surely this is the grandest celebration of all. Their Spiritual Director, the Very Rev. Father Bax, will celebrate solemn high mass in honor of the occasion at 6:30 o'clock on that Sunday morning, and at that mass the members will receive holy communion. There will be no other celebration of the day, unless Father Bax chooses to say a few words during the mass.

It is hardly necessary to tell Catholics in this part of the country what kind of a society the Catholic Knights of America is. Its works speak for themselves. Through these Catholic Knights the tears of the widow have been dried and the orphans fed, clothed and educated. The dead have been given Christian burial and masses have been said for the repose of their souls. Branch 25 has engaged in all of this work and its members have laid up for themselves treasures in heaven.

This branch is made up to a great extent of members of St. John's parish. Its headquarters have been at St. John's and the Very Rev. Father Bax has been its Spiritual Director ever since its establishment. It was organized in St. John's school hall on October 28, 1878. The charter members were John J. Barrett, Edward Sheehan, Thomas Hill, Michael Grogan, Martin Shaughnessy, Julius Coenen, Pat Byron, Dominic Bax, F. P. Baron and John Ruddy. Of these four are numbered among the dead. They are John J. Barrett, Martin Shaughnessy, Dominic Bax and John Ruddy. John Barrett was the first President of the branch, Edward Sheehan his first Secretary and F. P. Baron his first Treasurer. During the first year of its existence Branch 25 numbered only twenty members all told.

In 1879 Dominic Bax was elected to the Presidency, while Mr. Sheehan was re-elected Recording Secretary. These officers served several years. Just how long is not definitely known, as part of the records have been misplaced. From 1886 till 1891 inclusive Edward Sheehan was President and William Osborne, now deceased, was Recording Secretary. Since then John A. McCarthy, Charles J. Desse and Albert F. Martin served two terms each as President, while E. J. Mann,

DRAMATIC

Entertainment For the Catholic Knights Will Be Given Monday.

Members of the Committee Are Busy Making Preparations.

Rehearsals Show That the Performers Are All in Readiness.

MANY TICKETS HAVE BEEN SOLD

Members of the Entertainment Committee, who have in charge the dramatic performance to be given at St. Mary's Hall on Monday night, are very busy men these days. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America, and as the cause is a worthy one the affair should be liberally patronized.

The Entertainment Committee met in the hall of Branch 262, at Seventeenth and Southgate streets, last week after the regular meeting of that branch. Addresses for the good of the order were made by Messrs. Michael Reichert, Joseph P. McGinn, Newton G. Rogers, Harry Veeneman and Albert Martin, while the meeting of the branch was in progress. At its close the entire branch remained to attend the meeting of the Entertainment Committee. Joe McGinn presided and Secretary Martin reported that he had collected advertisements worth $25 and was ready to proceed with the programmes and was instructed to have them printed. On motion of Mr. Reichert it was decided to reserve the first four rows in the hall. Each of these reserved seats will be fifteen cents extra and will be sold only at the door. The meeting then adjourned till Monday evening.

The Central Committee, under whose auspices the dramatic entertainment will be held, is made up of men tried and true in the ranks of the Catholic Knights of America. The majority of them are veteran members of the order and charter members of their respective branches. Among them may be mentioned Michael Reichert, Joseph P. McGinn, Patrick Holley, Thomas Feeley, Thomas Sheehan, Edmund Rapp, Edmund Hill, Joseph Hubbuch, Charles J. Desse, Thomas Dignan, Newton G. Rogers, William T. Meehan, Jonathan Thickett and Police Commissioner John A. Murphy, the latter two representing the Jeffersonville branch. It was men like these who organized the Central Committee for the purpose of keeping up the interest of the order and to aid and sustain the weaker branches. As the order is largely made up of men who are in humble circumstances, and whose only resource is a day's work, the Central Committee worked and is working to protect these, who when through no fault of their own lose their positions, until another place of employment can be found. These gentlemen are doing a great work and their efforts should receive support and encouragement.

To enable them to carry on their work the entertainment, which is to take place Monday evening, was arranged. Ben Speaker, ever in the forefront as a manager and worker when charitable undertakings are on hand, agreed to be the guiding star. To him the Central Committee is indebted for selecting a play, securing the performers and rehearsing them. His only reward will be the consciousness of duty well done. The entertainment will be opened with a brief address by the Very Rev. Father Bernard Westerman, pastor of the Immaculate Conception. Following this "Tony the Convict," a drama in five acts, will be produced. Among the performers will be such well known entertainers as Ben Speaker, Thomas D. Clines, John McDermott, Michael Reichert, Sylvester Grove, F. Hullsman, Peter Schreck, Miss Lena Schickel, Mrs. R. M. Wathen, Miss Josephine Robert and Miss Rosa Stoehr. Incidental to the action of the drama there will be vocal and instrumental music and between the acts specialties will be given by Messrs. A. Tschan, Clem Booker, John Gleisner, Sam Merrifield and Miss Ada Cunningham. As a whole the entertainment promises to be an excellent and pleasing one.

REVEREND VISITOR.

The Rev. Father John McKerny, pastor of St. Peter's church at Stanley, Daviess county, has returned from spending a three weeks' vacation in Colorado. He was the guest of the Rev. Father Bernard Cunningham, pastor of Holy Cross church, several days last week. Father McKerny is much improved by his trip to the West.

MAKING PROGRESS.

Grand Secretary Lantz visited Bardonia last week and attended a meeting of O'Connell Council, Y. M. I. At that meeting eleven new members were initiated and the council was shown to be in excellent working order. The members have secured new quarters and expect to double their membership within a few months. President John M. Conroy presided over the meeting and several excellent addresses were made.

Butler Leeboldt, F. P. Baron and John Garraghty served one year each. The incumbent President is William T. Meehan. Since 1891 the Recording Secretaries have been in order Edward Sheehan, Patrick Russell, Theodore J. Kern, Harry Veeneman and Lawrence J. Veeneman. Several of them served more than one term.

Mr. Baron has been Treasurer of the branch since its establishment save one year, when he was elected President. For many years past either Lawrence J. Veeneman or E. J. Mann has been Financial Secretary.

The present officers of the branch are Very Rev. Father Bax, Spiritual Director; William T. Meehan, President; John F. Schunicht, First Vice President; P. J. Schreck, Second Vice President; L. Dominic Bax, Recording Secretary; E. J. Mann, Financial Secretary; F. P. Baron, Treasurer; Charles J. Desse, A. F. Hemmerle and J. M. Rheil, Trustees; William F. Stuckenburgh, Sergeant-at-Arms; Martin Shaughnessy, Sentinel.

In 1896 Branch 10, an older branch than No. 25, composed of men living in that section of the city north and east of St. John's parish, was about to be suspended, but the members were taken into Branch 25. This gave it about forty additional members. At the present time it has a membership of 110. The first assessment paid by members of Branch 25 was No. 5. Now they are called upon to pay assessment 773.

The members of this branch are all devout Catholics and earnest workers for the good of the order. Their celebration will set a good example for other Catholic societies.

President William T. Meehan said in response to inquiries: "A vast amount of money has been paid out by the members of Branch 25. It would be an almost impossible task to tell of the distress that has been relieved by the assessments paid by these men, the majority of whom are poor mechanics. While the majority of them live in St. John's parish, the members are scattered from Portland to the Point."

FAREWELL.

The Very Rev. Father Fowler's Term as Prior Expires.

The Debt Association of St. Louis Bertrand church held an important meeting in Bertrand Hall on Monday night. The Very Rev. Fowler, O. P., who has been Prior of the Dominicans and pastor of the congregation for the past three years, attended the meeting and bade the members of the association farewell. Father Fowler's term as Prior has expired and his successor will be elected on Monday. He left Thursday for Columbus, O., where he made his final report to the Provincial of the order.

After the reports from the various districts of the parish had been received and routine business transacted, Mr. John P. Cassilly, President of the association, paid a high tribute to Father Fowler. Mr. Cassilly told how Father Fowler founded the Debt Association and outlined its history. Through the efforts of Father Fowler and this association the debt of the church has been materially reduced. He expressed the sorrow that all felt over the departure of their reverend pastor and assured him that he would always have the prayers and well wishes of the congregation for his health and happiness.

Father Fowler responded briefly, thanking the members of the association for their unselfish work, and assured them that he would always remember them in his prayers and masses. The Rev. Father Martin, Sub-Prior, also made a brief address and urged the members to continue their good work. He told them the greater the sacrifices they made to aid the church the greater would be their reward in the next world. Father Martin spoke of Father Fowler as a kind superior and expressed the wish that he would be re-elected.

Too much can not be said in praise of the good work accomplished by Father Fowler. In addition to materially reducing the debt he beautified the church by adding electric lights to its equipment, further adorning the sanctuary, putting in tiled aisles, hardwood floors, new confessionals and other improvements. He was an earnest, indefatigable worker, and his loss will be felt by the entire community.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.

Mrs. James Russell, who recently suffered the amputation of one of her limbs at the knee, is progressing favorably and her friends will be glad to hear that she will soon be removed to her home at 1620 West Madison street. Some time ago Mrs. Russell was attacked by a malignant ailment which caused her great pain. On examination it developed that the limb must be amputated in order to save her life. She was removed to St. Joseph's Infirmary, where the operation was successfully performed, and the patient is now on the road to recovery. Mrs. Russell has a wide acquaintance in Louisville and is universally respected.

TO GIVE MISSION.

The Rev. Edwin Drury, missionary for this diocese, will give a mission at St. Philip Neri's church, beginning Sunday, October 25, and continuing until and including November 1. The Rev. Father Ackerman invites the public in general to attend this mission as the sermons will be full of interest to non-Catholics. The hours at which services will be held have not been arranged.

GLORY ENOUGH FOR ALL.

Now that a brighter day appears to be dawning for Ireland, it is pitiful to see old factional fights renewed among patriotic people of our race both at home and abroad. They have begun to fight and quarrel for the credit of having brought a little, a very little, prosperity to Ireland. Less than a week ago we read of the quarrel in the East among factions of the physical force or Clan-na-Gael party. The leader of one faction, the editor of a journal, claimed the sole right for his party to celebrate the centenary of Robert Emmet. He derided the celebrations heretofore given by the opposing factions and to be given hereafter; he abused the leaders of the other faction and abused the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He set himself up as the Moses of Ireland. All others were false prophets and their followers worse than heretics. In turn this self-constituted hero, who wants to claim, who does claim, all the credit, who thinks he has suffered most, and says he has made the most sacrifices for Ireland, is being roundly abused by the leaders of other factions. And in Ireland this week there was a free-for-all fight at the polls over the election of a member of Parliament. The Redmondites and the anti-Redmondites fought with clubs, and for what? Not for Ireland, not for a seat in British Parliament, but for purely selfish motives.

This factional fighting must be stopped if we ever intend to make Ireland a nation free and independent. If we must fight, let us fight the common enemy. We must learn to conquer ourselves before we can conquer the British tyrants. In our factions lies our weakness. It was this very trouble that led to Ireland's downfall. The O'Neils and O'Donnells in the North, the O'Briens, McCarthys and O'Sullivans in the South, the O'Moore's and O'Byrnes in the East, and the O'Connors and O'Rouarks in the West, all fought among themselves, not that they loved Ireland less, but because they loved their respective sects more. Had they united against the common enemy Ireland would today have held its place among the free and independent nations of the earth.

Stop this factional fighting, we pray you. There is room for us all. We are all members of a magnificent race. The Clan-na-Gaels, the Fenians, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, all have their proper spheres. There is work for all of them and plenty of it. There is a place for the Nationalists, who believe they will secure something from Parliamentary agitation, but all must work together. It is only a selfish, a damning ambition, that prompts one faction to set itself upon a pedestal and expect the throng to incense it with swinging censurers and cry aloud: "You're it! You're it! You're it!"

Remember, brethren, when Robert Emmet's epitaph is written there will be glory enough to go round. The land that produced Brian Boru, Red Hugh O'Neill, Sarsfield, O'Bryan, Wolfe Tone, Robert Emmet, Daniel O'Connell, Tom Moore, Oliver Plunkett, Parnell, Mitchel, Stephens and O'Mahony, has never ceased to honor them, even though many of them held opposite views. As there is glory and fame for these, so will there be glory and fame for the rest of us when the time comes.

None of us are infallible. None of us has the right to say "Ours is the only way." Be patient, be forbearing, be generous to others. It is indeed a strange, sad thing to see a nation like the Irish, proverbial in its hospitality to the stranger, as Lever puts it, "Fightin' like devils for conciliation and hatin' each other for the love of God."

We do not question the honesty or earnestness of purpose of any of these factional leaders. They are all in favor of the freedom of Ireland, but they are acting the part of children, who refuse to play unless you play their game. Get together you men of Irish blood. Lay aside your personal grievances and ambitions and prepare to fight the common enemy.

The Most Rev. Archbishop Keane, who has been abroad for several months, recently returned to his archiepiscopal see at Dubuque. When questioned by a reporter on the proposition to lift the ban of the Catholic church from Masonry he said: "I have read the resolutions drawn up to be presented at the Catholic Federation at Atlantic City, and I have noted that they were not brought up in the convention. I would not care to make an offhand statement in regard to the matter, because the subject is a very serious one. I do not believe that the subject will ever be advanced to lift the ban. It never has been, and I do not think it ever will be." "Not even in America?" queried his interrogator. "Not even in America," responded His Grace. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday were registration days and the citizens of both the leading parties turned out in large numbers. The total registration is approximately 39,000. Of these about 20,500 registered as Democrats, 13,000 as Republicans, and 5,500 failed to state their affiliation. This gives the Democrats a plurality of 7,000 over the Republicans and a majority of 2,000 over all. The supplemental registration will not materially change the standing of the respective parties. These figures show that Louisville will continue to be governed by Democrats, and that the good people of this city will help to swell Gov. Beckman's majority in the State.

An Irish artist is painting a portrait of Pope Pius X. at the latter's request; an Irish optician in Dublin has been sent for to fit him with a new pair of eyeglasses. Would there be anything remarkable about it if His Holiness were to send to Ireland for a Papal Secretary of State? He might go farther and fare worse.

The standing of the candidates in our World's Fair popularity contest will be published next week. More surprises are in store for the candidates and their friends, as several changes have resulted during the past week. Friends of candidates will do well to hustle if they want to see their favorites near the top.

ALBERT S. SMITH

Acquires Interest of His Former Associates in Undertaking Business.

Albert S. Smith, the popular Councilman from the Ninth ward, and who for several years past has been associated with his brother and sister in the undertaking business under the name of Gran. W. Smith's Sons, has bought out the other members of the firm and will continue to conduct the business in his own name. Mr. Smith, who is one of the most capable funeral directors and embalmers in the city, will retain his present quarters at 704 West Walnut street.

Al Smith is a rising young business man and has the confidence of the public. In addition to carrying on his own business he has faithfully guarded the interests of the city as Councilman during the past two years, and is now a Democratic candidate to succeed himself.

FRIENDS CALLED

To Congratulate Mr. and Mrs. John F. Finke on Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Finke celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at St. Peter's church, on Southgate street, on Thursday morning. High mass was celebrated and in the afternoon and evening they held a reception at their home, 1633 Southgate street.

Mr. Finke is Superintendent of the enameling department of the Ahrens & Ott Manufacturing Company. Both he and Mrs. Finke are highly respected and their friends hope they will live to celebrate their golden anniversary.

NONPAREIL CLUB'S DANCE.

The Nonpareil Dancing Club will give the first dance of its fall and winter series at the new Masonic Hall on Wednesday night, October 14. It was the most successful dancing club in the city last year, and promises to eclipse all former efforts the coming season. In the new Masonic it has secured a hall unsurpassed by any in the city. The club members are among the most popular in the city and they desire to increase their popularity by giving the next dance under auspicious circumstances. The Nonpareil Club will give dances every alternate Wednesday during the fall and winter.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

The regular monthly meeting of the Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be held at St. Francis' Hall, in the basement of the Cathedral, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted. The winter season is rapidly approaching and the work for the various conferences of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be outlined at this meeting.

AGED CITIZEN DEAD.

Michael Flynn, an aged and highly respected citizen of the West End, died at noon Thursday as the result of the ailments attendant upon old age. He is survived by his wife and two children, Patrolman John Flynn and Miss Maggie Flynn. The funeral will take place from the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock this morning.

COL. WHALEN BETTER.

The many friends of Col. John H. Whalen will be glad to learn that he is able to be out and attending to his business. Early in the week he suffered an attack of malaria, which his physicians feared would develop into typhoid fever. Prompt treatment put the dread disease to flight.

ENTERPRISE CLUB.

The Enterprise Club, an organization composed of well known ladies of the West End, will give their opening euchre at Ostrader's Hall, Twenty-eighth and Magazine streets, on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, October 15. The prizes will be numerous and handsome.

FRIENDS WELCOME.

Arthur Kelly, one of the leading young pharmacists of the city, has accepted a position with Charles J. Cronan at Twelfth and Zane streets. Mr. Kelly will be glad to see his friends at his new quarters and assures all patrons prompt attention.

FIREMAN INJURED.

Martin McNally, of the No. 5 Engine Company, who was painfully injured while answering an alarm of fire Tuesday, is resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances at the City Hospital.

A NEAT APPEARANCE.

Every woman who desires to possess a neat appearance must pay particular attention to the care of her clothing. A garment that gives evidence of dust or stains is very deteriorating to the wearer, however costly it may be, because it betrays a lack of cleanliness. Dress skirts and petticoats should be carefully brushed after removal and then looked over to see if they require any necessary stitches. A waist should be thoroughly aired after being worn. A good way to do it is to place it with the wrong side out on a back of a chair before an open window. Shields should be washed after two or three wearings. A becoming waist or gown that has done service for one or more seasons may still present an air of attractiveness by applying a bit of pretty trimming or whatever may be needed to give fresh touches of beauty. Too much stress can not be laid on the care of shoes and gloves, for nothing so marks a genteel woman as a well-shod foot and neatly gloved hand.

A raw potato will remove mud stains from black cloths. It should be cut in half and rubbed on the marks.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 1 will hold an important meeting on Tuesday night. A full attendance is desired.

Thomas Jordan and Robert E. Jefferson were elected to membership in Division 3 Monday night.

Company L, Hibernian Rifles, of Rome, N. Y., will go into camp under military rules at Niagara Falls in a short time.

William McHugh and Joe Cooney were nominated for Vice President of Division 3 at the last meeting. Mr. Cooney was elected.

Division 4 will meet Wednesday night, when arrangements will be made for a big initiation to be held at the following meeting.

County President Sullivan installed the new President and Vice President of Division 3 immediately after the election on Monday night.

John Cavanaugh tendered his resignation as President of Division 3 on Monday night. It was reluctantly accepted, and Tom Quinn, an active young Hibernian, was elected in his stead.

William C. Constantine, of Division 1, Jeffersonville, and one of the best known railroad men in Southern Indiana, has been promoted to fireman on the Pennsylvania lines. He is receiving the congratulations of his fellow Hibernians.

The Jeffersonville division held a well attended meeting Tuesday night. Among those present was County President John Kenney, who at the last meeting of the County Presidents at Indianapolis offered a number of suggestions which met approval.

The members of Division 3 expect to enjoy a pleasant evening on Monday, October 19, when they will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the establishment of the division. County President Patrick T. Sullivan will review the history of the division and several other members will deliver impromptu speeches. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. James Dwyer, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Cloquet, Minn., entertained recently in honor of Miss Margaret A. Grady, State Insurance Secretary of the order, and Miss Agnes Reilly, of the State Insurance Board. Miss Reilly gave the members an interesting talk on the insurance feature. During the evening the guests were entertained with music and recitations.

MASONIC THEATER.

"At Cozy Corners" will be the offering at the Masonic Theater next week, with Lizzie Evans, the famous little comedy star, in the leading role. The public remembers Miss Evans' clever work in "Poggy's Ferry," "Our Angel" and "Coon Hollow," and she will doubtless be warmly welcomed after an absence of five years. "At Cozy Corners" is a domestic drama of engrossing interest and the theme of the play is a wholesome story of heart interest that will appeal to the better class of theater-goers. In the act depicting the lawn surrounding the church a crowd of children is introduced with pleasing effect and specialties are introduced, including the boy quartet of singers and the famous Hennings trio of dancers. A strong and capable company supports Miss Evans in this production.

HOPKINS.

The excellent vaudeville attractions at Hopkins' Theater drew large crowds every afternoon and evening this week. Next week another splendid bill is offered. Among the stars will be Filson and Errol in a comedy sketch, the four Nighthous, premier acrobats; the Deland-Debrimont trio, vocalists; Madame Emmie and her trained dogs; Polly Moran, the comedienne; The Lovitts, jugglers and acrobats; Smith and Fuller, and the biograph.

MACAULEY'S.

Miss Virginia Harned, the gifted actress, will appear at Macauley's Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Wednesday matinee in "Iris," Pinero's latest London success. "Lady Rose's Daughter," a dramatization of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's novel of that name, will be produced on Thursday and Friday nights under the management of Charles Frohman. Miss Fay Davis will assume the title role.

BUCKINGHAM.

The "Moonlight Maids," presenting brilliant burlesques, splendid specialties and elegant costumes, will be the next attraction at the Buckingham Theater. "Parisian Pastimes" is the title of one of the burlesques, and is said to be full of bright, catchy music and sparkling comedy lines. In the olio will be several old time vaudeville entertainers in new roles, and many new claimants for honors as entertainers. The usual matinees will be given.

BUSINESSLIKE

Was the Last Meeting of Mackin Council, Y. M. I.

Mackin Council, Young Men's Institute, met Tuesday night with a fair attendance. The application of J. Callahan was received. Treasurer Joseph Steltenpohl made his quarterly report, showing the affairs of the council to be in a flourishing condition. The Visiting Committee reported that Charles Smith, who has been seriously ill of typhoid fever, was improving.

An invitation to attend the euchre to be given by Trinity Council was received and accepted. The Lecture Committee reported that it had secured the services of Alderman James J. Fitzgerald for the evening of Tuesday, October 27. Clarence H. Zook, prominent in local insurance circles, was unanimously recommended for Council Deputy. The Investigating Committee for the ensuing term is made up as follows: Henry Bloemer, T. L. Humphrey and Hugh Riley. Madison Council sent an invitation to all the local councils to attend their big initiation tomorrow. The invitation was gratefully accepted by Mackin Council and several of the members will assist in exemplifying the degree work.

CATCHES SOMETHING.

Tom Hallinan, the popular Louisville & Nashville machinist, will leave tonight for Rolling Fork and will spend tomorrow fishing. Tom is a great fisherman and never fails to catch something. Two weeks ago he undertook a piscatorial expedition and promised fish to many of his friends. When he returned Sunday evening with half a dozen chicken his friends declared he had been fishing in a lot. Sam Kennedy, who invited Tom to fish at his place tomorrow, has notified his neighbors to keep a close watch on their poultry until Hallinan returns home.

PASSIFLORA'S DANCE.

The Passiflora Club will give the second of its series of three dances at Fountain Ferry Park on Tuesday night. The club is composed of a number of the best known young men in the West End. Among its members are Edward Weber, Jack Shelley, Will Taylor, A. Zachari, J. M. Taylor and J. McManaman. The first Regiment Band will furnish the music and an enjoyable evening is promised all who attend.

FOR THE AGED.

St. Anthony's Hall, a home for the aged and infirm recently erected at Lafayette, Ind., was dedicated Tuesday by the Right Rev. Bishop Alender. More than fifty priests were present at the ceremonies. The institution will be conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis, who also conduct St. Anthony's Hospital in this city. Aged people of every creed will be tenderly cared for in this institution.

APPOINTED BISHOP.

The Right Rev. Monsignor O'Gorman, of the congregation of the Holy Ghost, has been appointed Bishop of Sierra Leone, Africa. The Bishop-elect was born in the County Kildare, Ireland, thirty-seven years ago. For several years past he had been marter of novices and professor of theology at the Cornwall Institute, near Philadelphia.

CLOSELY ALLIED.

Speaking about self-consciousness, how closely it is allied to self-conceit? In many instances we meet people who are musically talented and who either deem it a great honor to exercise their gift for the pleasure of others or who want others to think that they are much more gifted than they really are and refuse the request to sing or play, giving some insincere excuse. The world would be much happier if people did not overrate themselves, but instead were content to do their best. A girl who can sing or play well, and who does so freely and with pleasure upon being asked, may not elicit the admiration due to a Patti, but her generous, unconscious manner will win for her the love of others and make her an agreeable companion. Just as "kind hearts are more than coronets," so too, a lack of self-conceit is greater than fine clothes or good looks, for it gives its possessor an unrestrained individuality.

What can be done with jelly that has not hardened? Cover the tops of the glasses with panes of window glass and set it in the sun for a few days, bringing it in nights and during showers. It will usually become hard. If it does not, save it for sauces, puddings and fruit cake and be more careful next time.

An old housewife says that the toughest of beef and chicken can be made tender and palatable by putting a spoonful of good cider vinegar in the pot in which it is boiling or in the juice with which the same are basted when roasting. It does not injure the flavor in the least.

Delicate gingham may be soaked for twenty or thirty minutes in a weak solution of salt and water, then washed in warm, soapy water and rinsed in clear water and again in water slightly starched. Hang on the wrong side, but not in the sun, or they will fade.

Use exactly opposite methods for removing food from hot and cold molds. When the mold contains ice cream or gelatin, wrap a cloth about it wrung from hot water; when it contains a hot pudding, wring the cloth from cold water.

After you have made your rich brown gravy for the roast and it is just ready to turn into the gravy-boat, add a couple of tablespoonsful of thick sweet cream. It will lighten the color and, what is more, impart a most delicious flavor.

In cooking green vegetables that are to be served without the liquor only enough water should be used to keep them from burning, otherwise the soluble nutritive qualities will be wasted.

LARGE CLASS
To Be Initiated by the Knights of Columbus Next Month.
Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, will initiate a large class on the second Sunday in November. This order of Catholic gentlemen has grown rapidly. Louisville has one of the strongest councils numerically speaking in the country. The fact that another class of fifty candidates is to be initiated speaks well for the order when it is considered that only men of high character are admitted to membership. The local members of the Knights of Columbus are among the leading business and professional men of the city.

LAST SUMMONS
Paul F. Semonin Has Passed Into Everlasting Life.
Paul Francois Semonin, the venerable father of County Clerk William J. Semonin and one of Louisville's most respected citizens, died at his residence, 2420 Cypress street, last Sunday. Death resulted from paralysis and a complication of other ailments. Mr. Semonin was born near Paris, France, seventy-four years ago. When five years old he removed with his family to the United States and settled near New Albany. There he grew up and was educated. On attaining his majority he removed to Henderson and engaged in the tobacco business and amassed considerable means. At the close of the civil war he built and ran several steamboats, which plied the Mississippi, Ohio and Red rivers. In 1868 Mr. Semonin removed to Louisville and continued in the wholesale tobacco business until a few years ago. He was noted for his generosity and gave liberally of all he possessed, so that he died a poor man. His death was not unexpected and when the end came his six children and four grandchildren were at his bedside. Mr. Semonin's children are County Clerk William J. Semonin, Mrs. R. E. Gilbert, Mrs. T. P. Young, Misses Minnie, Jean and Celeste Semonin. The funeral took place from the house at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and was very largely attended. The family of the deceased have the sympathy of thousands of friends in their bereavement.

GATHOF BROS.
Invite All to Attend Their Fall Opening on Monday Next.
Gathof Bros., dealers in dry goods, gentlemen's furnishings and shoes, at 800-806 West Market street, will have their fall opening on Monday. They invite the general public to attend this opening and inspect their stock of new goods. The store will be tastefully decorated and flowers will be spread in profusion. All callers will be attentively received and souvenirs will be distributed. The members of the firm of Gathof Bros. are Martin J., S. Nicholas, Frank A. and George A. Gathof. This remarkably successful firm was established at 816 West Market street in 1881. At that time Gathof Bros. had very little capital and carried only a line of gent's furnishings. However, their goods were of the right sort and the Messrs. Gathof were energetic and attentive to business. In 1885 their business had grown so that it became necessary for them to have more commodious quarters and they removed to 816 West Market street. Here, too, they prospered and in 1890 they decided to add a dry goods department to their store. Hence it became necessary to again enlarge the establishment and they added the store at 814 West Market street to their former quarters. In 1895 the business had so increased that the Gathof Bros. were again compelled to look for larger quarters and removed to 800 West Market street. In the same year they again enlarged the store by taking in 802 and 804 West Market street. This year they have further increased their floor room by taking in 806 West Market street. They have also added a shoe department and are now equipped as fully as any department store. They desire to call attention in a particular manner to ladies' suits, shirt waists, skirts, etc. Gathof Bros. carry only first class goods in each of their several departments. They believe in giving their patrons good goods, and their ideas have met with the approval of the public. The members of the firm stand high socially as well as commercially. From a very humble beginning their business has grown to immense proportions, and now they give employment to fifty clerks. Their opening on Monday will attract a throng of visitors to their store, but an extra force of clerks will be on hand to see that all callers receive prompt attention. They deserve a continuance of the success they have achieved.

COMMERCIAL CLASS.
The Rev. Father John O'Connor, pastor of Holy Name church, South Louisville, has inaugurated a commercial class in connection with his parochial school. His is the only one in the city wherein are taught shorthand, typewriting and book-keeping. Father O'Connor wants the children committed to his care to keep abreast of the times. Quite a large class is taking the commercial course.
LUCKY MISS DANNAEHAUER.
Miss Lena Dannaehauer is the fortunate winner of a handsome photograph disposed of at the picnic given for the benefit of St. Philip Neri's church several months ago. She has not called for the picture. The Rev. Father Ackerman, pastor of St. Philip Neri's congregation, is anxious for her to receive the article, which can be had by calling at his residence.

RECENT DEATHS.
The funeral of Mrs. Ida Mayfield, a well known lady of Jeffersonville, who died Tuesday, took place from St. Augustine's church on Thursday morning.
Timothy Garrity died at his home, 1226 Rowan street, on Wednesday morning. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock Friday morning.
Miss Flora O'Daniel, a fifteen-year-old girl, and a member of a well known family of Port Fulton, Ind., died Wednesday. The funeral took place from St. Anthony's church, Jeffersonville, on Thursday.
Alfred L. Edwards died at the family residence, 913 Second street, on Tuesday evening. The deceased was a well known saddler and was highly respected. The funeral took place from St. Mary Magdalen's church Thursday morning.
Andrew Zehnder, an old and respected citizen of the county, died at his residence on the Brownsboro road on Monday afternoon. The deceased was sixty-five years old. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's church on Thursday morning.
Charles A. Zoeller, a popular young man of New Albany, died at St. Edward's Hospital on Saturday, as a result of blood poisoning which followed an attack of erysipelas. The deceased was twenty-three years old and an active member of Unity Council, Y. M. I. His funeral took place from Holy Trinity church, of which he was a devout communicant.
Mrs. Hannah Garvey, aged sixty-two years, died at the family residence, 228 East Main street, Sunday morning. The deceased was the wife of Patrick Garvey and was noted for both her charity and Christian life. The funeral took place from St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Father Sheridan was the celebrant of the solemn requiem mass.

Thomas G. Doneka, a well known pattern-maker, aged forty-four years, died at his residence, 2028 Preston street, last Sunday. His funeral took place from St. Philip Neri's church Tuesday morning. Father Ackerman conducting the solemn last rites of the church. He is survived by a widow and six children, who have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
Miss Emma Josephine Clarke, aged fifteen years, died at the family residence, on the Berry boulevard, Jefferson county, on Tuesday evening. The deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke and was a girl of great promise. Her grief-stricken parents have received many expressions of condolence on account of her untimely death. The funeral took place from St. Helena's church, on the Seventh street road, on Friday morning.
The funeral of little Miss Sarah Elizabeth Cheek, who died Wednesday, took place from Holy Cross church Friday morning. The child was twelve years old and was a familiar figure on the local stage, where she frequently gave singing and dancing specialties for worthy purposes. The Rev. Father Cunningham prepared her for her first communion during the past summer. She received the sacrament with the last first communion class at Holy Cross church.

FIVE YEARS
Of Married Bliss Celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harig, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harig, Jr., celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage last Sunday. Mrs. Harig is choir director and organist at St. Mary Magdalen's church, and on Sunday morning spoke feelingly of the marriage anniversary and asked the prayers of the congregation for the continuance of the Christian and happy life of the good couple. On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Harig held a reception at their beautiful home on Second street and received the hearty congratulations of many friends.
ROSARY SUNDAY
Celebrated With Due Solemnity at St. Louis Bertrand's Church.
The Rosary Sunday celebration at St. Louis Bertrand's church was well attended both at the late mass at 10:30 o'clock and in the afternoon. Solemn high mass was celebrated by the Very Rev. Father Fowler, O. P., assisted by the Rev. Fathers Heagan and McFeeley, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. E. A. Martin, O. P. The reverend speaker dwelt at length on the devotion of the rosary and the many favors that have been granted through its recital. Long before the hour for vespers in the afternoon the church, one of the largest in Louisville, was filled to overflowing. People from all parts of the city were present and hundreds were unable to gain entrance. After solemn vespers had been sung 150 children, attired in white, took part in the rosary procession. The fifteen beautiful banners were carried by altar boys, who walked between the various groups of little girls. The spectacle was beautiful and edifying. After the recitation of the rosary the Rev. M. L. Heagan, O. P., preached the rosary sermon, explaining the mysteries, the simplicity and beauty of the prayers and the love Catholics should have for the Blessed Virgin. The ceremonies closed with the benediction of the most blessed sacrament. From dawn till dark Sunday evening the faithful who had received the sacraments of penance and holy communion through the vicinity of the rosary altar for the purpose of gaining the Toties Quoties indulgence.

FINE DIAMOND STUD
Presented to John J. Flynn by Louisville & Nashville Employees.
John J. Flynn, who during the past three years has been foreman of the Louisville & Nashville round house at Tenth and Kentucky streets, severed his connection with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company yesterday evening, to assume the more responsible position of master mechanic of the Louisville & Atlantic railroad, with headquarters at Richmond, Ky. While his friends are proud of his promotion, they regret his leaving Louisville.
John Flynn was born and raised in this city, educated in Louisville schools, learned his trade in the Louisville & Nashville shops and worked here as a mechanic and foreman. He has done all things well. His motto has ever been "Duty first and pleasure afterward." At that he has always found time to engage in Irish-American affairs and was the last President of the Irish-American Society of this city.
Mr. Flynn began his career with the Louisville & Nashville railroad as a machinist apprentice on December 1, 1878, so that he has served that road all twenty-five years, less one month and a fraction. His ability has been recognized by his superiors and his subordinates have found him a kind and considerate foreman. When he was leaving the round house yesterday evening his men surprised him by gathering around him and presenting him with a handsome diamond stud. With difficulty he found words to thank the donors. He carries with him the good wishes of friends both from the Louisville & Nashville shops and from all parts of the city.

FATHER STROEBELE'S VISIT.
The Rev. Father Albert Stroebel, formerly pastor of St. Augustine's church in this city, but who has been engaged in missionary work among the islands of the Caribbean sea, paid a flying visit to Louisville on Tuesday and was warmly welcomed by many of his old friends. He spent part of the day at the residence of L. Harting, 1509 West Madison street, where many of his former parishioners called on him. Father Stroebel left here Wednesday night for Mobile, where he will purchase building material for his intended mission house in Old Providence Island. From Mobile Father Stroebel will go to Cincinnati, where he expects to lecture and make collections for his missions.
RESULTED FATALLY.
Henry Cooper, thirty-one years old, died at the University Hospital at 8 o'clock Wednesday as the result of injuries received while working for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company at South Louisville three weeks ago. Mr. Cooper was engaged in erecting the new shops for the railroad company, when a heavy derrick fell, crushing his spine. He lingered in agony until death came to his relief. The deceased was a most estimable young man and was very popular among his associates. The remains were taken to the residence of his father, John Cooper, at 1615 West Main street, and on Friday were removed to Taylor's cemetery. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Ed Stone, of St. Louis Bertrand church.
